INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION

Yes, Physics is the crucial criterion for selection in NEET exam.

Neet Exam Consists of 720 marks which include 45 questions of Physics And Chemistry Each and 90 questions of biology so that 180 marks for physics and chemistry each and 30 marks for biology.

After Passing, class 10 people approach to Kota for Neet Preparation or going for a branded institute for training.

However, unfortunately, they got very poor marks in physics sometimes 50/180 or 60/180 and got excellent marks in biology and are not able to select in NEET EXAM because minimums marks needed for physics Exam is for GOVT MEDICAL COLLEGE is FOR any state at least 580 in general category.

Don't take the risk for physics when you are targeting NEET exam just clear your concepts by seeking guidance from some professional mentor to understand concepts and save your time.
